

Strategies in the ESL Classroom

Here is a summary of the important steps for teaching strategies:

Make sure students are aware of strategies
they already use.

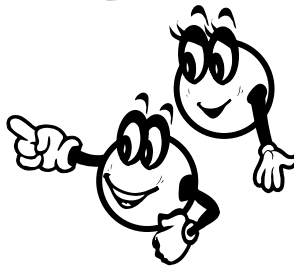

1. Determine the students' needs.
2. Select the strategy to teach and a significant context.
3. Present, explain and model the new strategy.
4. Guide the student's initial use of the strategy and provide plenty of practice using appropriate tasks.
5. Encourage students to reflect on their use of the strategy, on how well they are doing, and on their difficulties and their successes.
6. Reflect on the way you presented the strategies to the students.
